

A STRONG INTERNATIONAL VOICE FOR BUSINESS IN UKRAINE FOR 28 YEARS

ABOUT

U.S.-Ukraine Business Council (USUBC) was established in 1995, headquartered in Washington, D.C. with the office in Kyiv, Ukraine.

MISSION

Dedicated to advancing U.S. and Ukraine companies' trade and investment interests, advocating for measures to improve conditions for bilateral trade and investment, and generally promote strong, friendly bilateral ties.

MEMBERS

Today USUBC unites more than 220 companies from different areas, among which Fortune Global 500 companies: Abbott Laboratories, ADM, Bayer, GE, Honeywell International, Lockheed Martin Corporation, Philip Morris International, VISA and others.

Benefits of being a Member

Receiving updates

on business, economic, and political developments in Ukraine

Industries Insights

to the USUBC's members-only consultations on market opportunities in Ukraine

Overcome administrative barriers

Individual approach to members (individual cases)

Getting access to the leading regional industry experts and high-level government officials

Exclusive networking

through members events

Assisting members to identify and meet prospective partners, customers, government and distributors

Advocacy and business Intelligence

Focus areas

B2G Business to Government

Driving actionable dialogue between Business and Government

B2B Business to Business

Creating continuous opportunities for Business-to-Business partnerships and project development

Contact:

Dmytro Filonenko

Senior Manager for Partnership and Business Development

 +38 096 483 10 37

 dfilonenko@usubc.org

 <https://usubc.org/>

